Os the 6th instant a great banquet was to have been given in the Palace to very numerous officials of defined classes, and immense proparations were made accordingly. Apparently there would have been accommodation for some 600 guests. At the last moment the banquet was countermanded, on account of the indisposition of the young Emperor. The banqueting hall was covered by a blue carpet of Chinese manufacture of extraordinary size, and in one piece, without a seam. The ground was a fine coloured blue, and in the centre w.a one design, viz., two five-clawed dragons in white. The effect was very tine and artistic. The carpot was not new .. but was in the most perfect order. Most of the modern Chinese carpets, except these made under the artistic supervision of Mr von Brandt, are dyed with staring, impermanent, and bad anilino dyes. A Birth of Four Children.-The Chinese have a custom that when a woman gives birth to a triplet, she must report the matter to the authorities, and they on their part will present her with three little conts, one rad, one yellow, and one green. These coals she must put on the infants in the dark, and the ones who will get the red and yellow coats will be exulted, while the one with the green coat will be ignoble. Suci events are, however, of the rarest occurrence and are regarded as marvels of nature. The other day a case still more wonderful occurred in Peking, where a woman gave birth to a pair of twins. The family lives in a village west of Chiang Yi Gate, and is surnamed Yang. Last spring Yang had his son married, and a week ago, to the great astonishment of the household, the wife gave birth to a pair of twins The mother in law, fearing deficient nourishment, decided to keep the two boys and cast away the girls, which was done but a neighbour, out of compassion, picked them up and took them home. This affair has created much gossip in the capital. -Shih Pao.

been events that have invited general interest and sympathy for beyond the confines of the Chinese Empire. When, nearly thirty years ago, Her Majesty the Empress Downger assumed the cares and the responsibilities of Government, many an anxious thought must have beset her mind, and it must be with a feeling of well-founded pride and satisfaction that Her Majesty looks back upon these troubled times and compares them with the peace and union that now exist all over the great empire she has | gram from the Mikado directing him to governed for so long a time. During the convey the congratulations of the latter to last thirty years great changes have taken place : China, which formerly it took many months to reach, and which from our point of view was considered as the farthest part of the globe, has been brought into close contact with the outer world, and it is now by weeks that the time is reckoned which it takes to reach it from Europe or America. It is therefore with so much greater satisfac tion and sympathy that my colleagues and myself have welcomed the words of Her Majesty referring to the foreign relations of China in the Imperial I dict. that is the cause of our meeting here to-day the high Ministers of State charged with the maintenance of these relations. My colleagues and a view to economising the Government myself hope and trust that they may remain what they so happily are, a fai hful expression of the mutual desire to cultivate and observe the eternal principles of right. justice, forbearance, and progress. It is in this view, and with this hope that I have the honour to request your Highness to place before Her Majesty the expression of these feelings as well as of our gratitude for the honour done to us by the terms of the Imperial Edict, to-day's banquet, and the rich presents, that we shall always
